therein must be fulfilled, by the selected candidate on 28th of February 2019.

7. General tender admission requirements include those specified in the previous section and compliance with the productivity criteria in force at Instituto de Telecomunicações, (<https://www.it.pt/docs/Politica de Qualidade 2.pdf>), that must be verifiable from the candidate's curriculum vitae.
8. According to article 5 of RJEC, selection is to be made based on the candidate's scientific and curricular evaluation.
9. Scientific and curricular career evaluation is based on relevance, quality and up-to-dateness:
  - 9.1. of scientific, technological production in the last five years, deemed most relevant by the candidate;
  - 9.2. of research activities, applied or based on practical work, developed in the last five years, deemed most impactful by the candidate;
  - 9.3. of knowledge extension and dissemination activities developed in the last five years, namely under the scope of the promotion of culture and scientific practices, deemed most relevant by the candidate;
  - 9.4. of the activities of management of science, technology and innovation programmes, in Portugal or abroad.
10. The five-year period mentioned above may be extended by the panel, if requested by the candidate, whenever the suspension of scientific activities is justified on socially protected grounds like paternity leave, long-term serious illness, and other legal situations of unavailability to work.
11. The evaluation of the scientific and curricular career has two components, namely:
  - 11.1. The assessment of the curriculum vitae and other documentation presented, giving particular relevance to the contributions considered most relevant by the candidate in the last 5 years. This component of the evaluation is expressed in a scale of 0 to 20, taking into consideration:
    - 11.1.1. Scientific production of the candidate, namely articles in peer-reviewed journals (referred in Journal Citation Report do ISI Web of Knowledge) and proceedings of international conferences. The jury will assess the scientific production taking into consideration the quality of the submitted items and their relevance to the field of the present call;
    - 11.1.2. Knowledge of the themes, the scientific and technical expertise to carry out the functions described in point 1.
  - 11.2. Candidates with a classification of 14 or higher in the previous component shall make a public live presentation or video-conference of the results of their scientific activity and future perspectives. Following, members of the evaluation panel shall stimulate an open debate with the candidate. The evaluation of the presentation is expressed in a scale of 0 to 20 and should take into account the scientific knowledge and the capacity of communication demonstrated by the candidate, as well as the answers to the questions placed by the members of the evaluation panel.

Each panel member score is obtained attributing a weighing factor of 90% to the classification given to the evaluation of the curriculum vitae and other documentation, and a weighing factor of 10% to the classification given to the presentation.

The final classification of each candidate is obtained by the sum of the scores of the panel members divided by the number of the members of the panel. In the event of a tie, the chairperson of the panel will have the casting vote.

12. The candidates' final classification system shall be given based on a numerical scale from 0 to 20.
  13. Each member of jury shall write a minute with their evaluation, and the panel shall deliberate by means of roll-call vote justified under adopted and disclosed selection criteria, with no abstentions allowed.
  14. Minutes of panel meetings shall be written and shall include a summary of all occurrences, all votes casted by the members and respective reasoning, and shall be provided to candidates whenever required.
  15. After applying the selection criteria, the panel will prepare a sorted list of approved candidates with their classification. The panel has the right of not selecting any of the candidates.
  16. The panel's final decision shall be validated by the leader of the institution, who is also in charge of deciding about hiring.
