4th MC Meeting

Dubrovnik, Croatia, January 24th – 26th 2023

About the city

History is alive in every part of this city - as museum city and at the same time a live stage, it represents a perfect cross between the past and the present.

Every nook and cranny of this Pearl of the Adriatic, as it is known, hides a treasure. Dubrovnik is surrounded by 1940 meters of unique medieval ramparts preserved in their original form and open to visitors as the city's flagship attraction. Protected by UNESCO World Heritage status since 1979, Dubrovnik can boast one of the first such listings in Croatia.

Its rich history, geographic location, mild climate and traditional hospitality and excellence in tourism make Dubrovnik a recognized high-quality product on the international tourism markets. Dubrovnik is Croatia's undisputed convention centre with the more conventions, congresses and corporate incentive programmes and better figures in this segment of tourism than any other location in the country. The city is a destination of culture, as witnessed by its many festivals, prestigious art happenings, major open-air events, excellent artists, and athletes, and, finally, its architectural treasures.

Getting to Dubrovnik by plane

Dubrovnik Airport is about 20 kilometres from Dubrovnik.

Upon arrival at Dubrovnik Airport, there is bus service to Dubrovnik 30 minutes after each regularly scheduled flight which takes passengers to Pile by the entrance to the Old City and then continues to the main bus station located in Gruž.

Upon departure, the bus leaves the main bus station in Gruž 1.5 hours before each domestic flight within Croatia, while for international flights it departs the main bus station 2 hours before the flight. When leaving Dubrovnik, the airport bus stops in front of the Grawe building on Dr. Ante Starčević street and in front of the cable car station in Petra Krešimira IV street.

You can check the exact time of departure for the airport bus on the carrier's website, which is listed below, as well as in Tourist Information Centres and at hotel reception desks.

Bus tickets can be purchased at the main bus station or from the bus driver.

Getting to Dubrovnik by bus

The bus terminal in Dubrovnik is located in Gruž near the port where, besides the information and sales office, passengers can find a wardrobe, taxi stand, and sales kiosk. One of the information offices of the Dubrovnik Tourist Board (Port of Dubrovnik building) and a Konzum supermarket are located nearby. In addition to international lines, there are daily intercity lines to all major cities in Croatia.

The only wardrobe that you can leave your luggage at in Dubrovnik is located at the main bus terminal.

The bus terminal is well connected with other parts of the city by regular bus lines, and taxi services are always at your disposal.

Getting to Dubrovnik by car

If you enjoy seeing new landscapes, Dubrovnik can be reached from Central and Western Europe in several ways; please select from the following:

From Western Europe:

1. Via Rijeka – motorway and continental road:

Rijeka - Senj - Žuta Lokva - Gospić - Dugopolje - Vrgorac - Ploče (motorway) - Dubrovnik.

2. Combination of Adriatic Highway (coastal road) and motorway:

Rijeka - Senj - Karlobag - Maslenica - Split - Makarska – Ploče (motorway) - Dubrovnik.

There are many different combinations using coastal roads and sections of the motorway. If taking the Adriatic Highway, one can enjoy the seaside scenery. The other option is taking the motorway, which passes through the continental part of the country, where the landscape is different, but no less picturesque.

From Central Europe:

1. Via Zagreb

Zagreb - Karlovac - Žuta Lokva - Gospić - Dugopolje - Vrgorac - Ploče (motorway) - Dubrovnik.

It is possible to combine this route with the Adriatic Highway.

2. Via Osijek (across Bosnia and Herzegovina)

Osijek - Slavonski Brod (or Brčko) - Sarajevo - Mostar - Metković - Dubrovnik /

Sarajevo - Foča - Trebinje - Dubrovnik

Petrol stations in and around Dubrovnik are open from 07:00 to 22:00, <http://www.hak.hr/>

Transport in the city

Bus

All parts of the city of Dubrovnik are well connected by frequent, regular bus lines. City bus timetables are displayed at every major bus stop, and you can also get timetables at the Information Offices of the Dubrovnik Tourist Board, at Libertas bus company kiosks, at hotel front desks, and the like.

Bus tickets can be purchased directly from the bus driver, at Tisak newsstands, at the Libertas bus company kiosks located at Pile, the Central Bus Terminal, the Pošta Lapad bus stop and in Mokošica, at hotel front desks and from travel agencies.
